

OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH DOCTOR

Serving nearly 6,000 companies and 60,000 employees, the A.P.S.T. 41, is a professional and multidisciplinary team of 80 people including : 17 occupational health doctors (4 portuguese doctors, one roumanian doctor), 7 nurses and a multidisciplinary service composed of ergonomists, occupational psychologists, a Health & Safety engineer, risk prevention technicians.

Application to :

A.P.S.T. Loir-et-Cher
Mme Sabine FOUQUART
1 rue Michel Bégon
F41018 Blois cedex
FRANCE
Tel : 00332 54 52 77 85
Mail : s.fouquart@apst41.fr

Job Description

Assisted by medical secretaries and work nurses, you will carry out the following missions: Medical oversight of employees and company members, actions in the workplaces : company visits, study of work stations, advice in the assessment of professional risks, participation in meetings on the Health and the Safety in the workplaces, informing and raising employee awareness of occupational hazards.

Job Profile

The candidate must have a diploma in General Medicine and an university diploma with specialization in Occupational Medicine, at least 5 years of experience and certificates and attestations that meet the criteria of the National Council of the Order of Doctors in France, a perfect knowledge of the French language, IIT knowledge: medical software, internet, email, Word, Excel, good interpersonal and communication skills, a sense of sharing and team spirit, a driving licence.

APST41 benefits

- Attractive salary depending on experience.
- Support for relocation to France (search for housing, schools, administrative procedures...)
- Contract type : permanent
- Family mutual insurance (Health guarantee)
- Provision of company cars and laptop computer
- Working time arrangements : full time or part time
- Personalized training plan and documentation service

At the heart of the Loire castles, 1/2 hour from Paris, find pleasant living in a central region, favoured by its infrastructure (highways, airport, station).